

5 TIPS

to Revive Neighbourhood
Nature Play in your Community

Come out & play

1. Play in the front yard

So other neighbourhood friends know where they can find other children.

2. Knock on your neighbour's door

Be the person to initiate contact and find the other children in your area.

3. organise neighbourhood playdates

Invite other neighbourhood children to play.

4. Hold a street party!

Get to know your neighbours, establish communication and create a community for your children.

5. Be seen playing regularly in your neighbourhood

Consistency and time is the key to building healthy neighbourly relationships. So let's get started.
