

for Bushwalking on the Sunshine Coast

1. CONONDALE NATIONAL PARK

Gold Mine walk (5.2km) – great views of Booloumba Creek through rainforest, then the remains of an old gold mine that was last active in the 1920s.

2. GLASSHOUSE MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK

Mount Beerburum track (1.4km) – a short but steep walk to a fire tower which offers great views of the surrounding countryside.

3. KONDALILLA NATIONAL PARK

Kondalilla Falls circuit (4.7km) – rainforest, rock pools and a trip to the base of the falls themselves (fantastic after rain).

4. MAPLETON FALLS NATIONAL PARK

Wompoo circuit (1.3km) – a short interpreted trail through rainforest and eucalypt forest. Great views into Obi Obi valley from Peregrine Lookout.

5. MAPLETON NATIONAL PARK

Linda Garrett circuit (700m) – great track through rainforest, palm grove and tall wet eucalypt forest dominated by large gum trees.

6. MOOLOOLAH RIVER NATIONAL PARK JOWARRA SECTION

Melaleuca walk (1.3km) – rainforest with palm groves, eucalypt forest and melaleuca swamp at a section of the river that is home to platypus.

7. MOOLOOLAH RIVER SECTION (FIRE MANAGEMENT TRAILS)

Boronia trail (2.4km) – great track through scribbly gum forest onto a heath plain. Spectacular wildflowers during early spring.

8. MT COOLUM NATIONAL PARK

Mount Coolum summit (1.6km) – a steep but very enjoyable walk to the top of an ancient volcanic dome created 26 million years ago. Also a great place to see wildflowers in Spring.

9. NOOSA NATIONAL PARK

Coastal track to Dolphin Point (2km) – a great introduction to coastal aspects of the Park with wonderful ocean views.

10. TEWANTIN NATIONAL PARK

Mount Tinbeerwah lookout (1km) – steep in some places, this short walk takes you to a fire tower with great views of the surrounding countryside.
