

for Free Water Play in & around Brisbane

- 1 Southbank Parklands Aquativity, Southbank
The magical charm of water is captured perfectly with shooting fountains, tipping buckets, water features and decorative elements aim to educate visitors about water cycles, river catchments and native aquatic animals.
- 2 Wynnum Wading Pool & Whale Park, Wynnum
Swim in shallow water, filling with sea water at high tide. Whale Water Park is right next door - featuring fun water spray fountains and nautical-themed playground - and set on Pandanus Beach, a calm, sandy stretch of water.
- 3 Settlement Cove Lagoon, Redcliffe
It features a large lagoon, wading pool, stepping stones, waterfall, nautical playground and a separate fenced toddler area complete with water jets, toadstools and bugs. Pack a picnic for a beachside BBQ with a view!
- 4 Robelle Domain, Ipswich
This place has everything - boardwalks and walking tracks via lakes, waterfalls and playgrounds, and a light show on summer evenings. The water play area is jam-packed with tipping buckets (the largest dumping 700L of water at once!) and jet sprays, close by to the interactive playground and cafe.
- 5 Orion Lagoon, Ipswich
This is one of the largest man-made public swimming areas in the Southern Hemisphere. Lifeguards are on duty in the 50m swimming area (up to 1.5m deep) suitable for lap swimming. Younger kids can enjoy Lagoon's end.
- 6 Rocks Riverside Park, Seventeen Mile Rocks
This park is a toddler paddling pool paradise! With shallow pools, fountains and water trickling through a meandering man-made watercourse, and little river rapids, there's so many attractions for little adventurers.
- 7 Walk to King Island from Wellington Point
A unique natural sand walkway is revealed at low tide, stretching about 1km off shore to the small island. This experience really is all about the journey itself!
- 8 Enoggera Reservoir, The Gap
Have a picnic along the Dam's sandy shore, swim in the calm waters, bring your canoe or kayak or inflatable for a peaceful paddle, or go platypus, kingfisher or water bird spotting. You could even try your luck at fishing.
- 9 Lower Moora Park, Shorncliffe
A small but picturesque beach near the Shorncliffe Pier, perfect for making sandcastles and paddling. Stroll up the pier, enjoy the picnic and barbeque facilities, and the Park has an amazing playground.
- 10 Sutton's Beach, Redcliffe
Sutton's Beach is a beautiful patrolled beach in Redcliffe. featuring the awesome, fully fenced Sutton's Beach Park, this beach will definitely be a huge hit!
